Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Ward s Mexico: Transcript From Mexico in 1827 In the Congressional Library at Washington are two substantial, leather-bound volumes of thirteen hundred pages, published in London, England, under the reign of King George IV, entitled Mexico in 1827. By H. G. Ward, Esq., His Majesty s Charge d Affaires in that country. The author gives an exhaustive description of the country, its climate, different peoples, resources, and production, together with a complete history of the long revolutions which ended in Mexican independence and confiscation of the old Spanish claims which had been the source of vast revenues. He made careful examinations of the mines that had given Mexico her reputation as the richest mining country in the world, and especially those of San Juan Bautista, in Sonora, which were renowned throughout Europe for the immense wealth they had produced, making this busy mining camp the capital of North New Spain long before Arispe was built. He says: In fact, it was the main object of my journey from England in 1825 to visit this mineral. He describes fully the work done and the wealth remaining in that famous group of fourteen mines, which could not at that time be worked below the water level; also those scarcely less celebrated mines known as Descubridora, Bronzosa, and Pinal, all of which have become the property of a number of prominent business men, mostly of Washington, D. C, who intend to reopen and work these extremely valuable properties with the aid of modern pumping and mining machinery. The San Juan Bautista Mining Company has been fully organized for such purpose, the property entirely paid for by said company,...
